Compliance and ethics professionals from the U.S. and across the globe to attend the 2015 Compliance & Ethics Institute, October 4-7, 2015 at the Aria in Las Vegas

Minneapolis, Minn.---July 23, 2015---Twenty-nine countries and five continents will be represented at the Society of Corporate Compliance and Ethics (SCCE) 14th Annual Compliance & Ethics Institute being held at the Aria in Las Vegas, October 4-7, 2015, the SCCE announced today.

"Compliance has grown to be a global profession, and the more than 1500 attendees we expect will be coming from most every corner of the world," said Adam Turteltaub, SCCE Vice President of Membership Development.

The Compliance & Ethics Institute offers an entire track – the International/Multi-National Track – comprised of sessions dedicated to international/transnational compliance issues which include Anti-Corruption Update from Europe, Conducting Effective Third Party Due Diligence in China, Developing and Implementing Global Compliance Programs Outside of the U.S, Promoting a Speak Up Culture in a Multinational Company, Establishing a Foreign Trade Law Compliance Management System in a Multi-National Enterprise – a European Perspective, Best Practices for Addressing Corruption-Related Risks Presented by International Third Party Intermediaries, Brazil, Colombia and Mexico: Trade with the Major Latin America Economies without Generating Corruption Liability, and more. The Compliance & Ethics Institute offers a global focus on compliance and ethics throughout the entire Compliance & Ethics Institute agenda. For session details and the conference brochure visit http://www.complianceethicsinstitute.org/

"With more than 100 sessions, the topics addressed reflect the wide range of issues affecting compliance professionals, whether based in the U.S., Brazil, Singapore, or anywhere else in the globe," said Turteltaub. "And the sessions don't just identify the challenges, they point the way to solutions that can help create more effective compliance and ethics programs."

More about the CEI
The Compliance & Ethics Institute is the primary education and networking event for professionals working in the Compliance and Ethics profession across all industries around the world. This conference features 155+ speakers, 115+ sessions, and 20+ networking events and includes eight educational tracks as well as a full-day investigations workshop.

About the SCCE
The Society of Corporate Compliance & Ethics (SCCE), established in 2004, is headquartered in Minneapolis, MN. SCCE is a non-profit professional member association that serves more than 5,000 compliance and ethics professionals globally. The association provides resources and training to compliance professionals and champions ethical practices and compliance standards. Visit the SCCE website at www.corporatecompliance.org.

####