

SCCE's Compliance & Ethics Institute headliners include Harvard Business School Professor and Author Francesca Gino, New York Times Bestselling Author Chris Bohjalian, and Author Kristy Grant-Hart

Minneapolis, Minn.---July 12, 2016--- The Compliance & Ethics Institute (CEI) headliners announced today by the Society of Corporate Compliance & Ethics (SCCE) will enrich, enlighten, and entertain conference goers while they address a wide range of compliance concerns from human trafficking and modern slavery to how to be an effective compliance officer to learning investigative interviewing techniques, and how to keep decisions from getting derailed. The SCCE will hold the Compliance & Ethics Institute, its annual international cross industry compliance conference, September 25-28, 2016 in Chicago at the Sheraton Grand.

"I don't think you will find a better lineup of speakers and topic than we have at the Compliance and Ethics Institute. The general sessions, like the more than 100 breakout sessions, cover issues compliance professionals want to know about: what are the requirements that organizations face, and how do I become more effective at identifying, finding and fixing problems," said SCCE CEO Roy Snell.

The CEI General Sessions include:

On Monday, September 26, Francesca Gino, professor, Harvard Business School will present Sidetracked: Why Our Decisions Get Derailed and How We Can Stick to the Plan. This session is followed by Michael W. Johnson, CEO, Clear Law Institute who will present Investigative Interviewing: What Researchers Have Found Works and Doesn't Work.

On Tuesday, September 27, 2016, Adam Turteltaub, SCCE Vice President, Strategic Initiatives and International Programs will moderate a panel discussion on Human Trafficking and Modern Slavery: The Next Compliance Challenge. Panelists include New York Times bestselling author Chris Bohjalian, Gwendolyn Hassan, Managing Counsel, Global Compliance & Ethics, CNH Industrial, and William Shepherd, Partner, Holland & Knight. Kristy Grant-Hart, founder and managing director of Spark Compliance Consulting, will present How to Be a Wildly Effective Compliance Officer.

About the CEI

The Compliance & Ethics Institute is the primary education and networking event for professionals working in the Compliance and Ethics profession across all industries around the world. This conference features 155+ speakers, 100+ sessions, numerous networking events, and a full-day investigations workshop. The CEI offers eight learning tracks—Risk, Ethics, Compliance Lawyer, IT Compliance, Case Studies, Advanced Discussion Groups, Hot Topics/General Compliance, and the International/Multi-National Track.

The sessions offered at the Compliance & Ethics Institute not only identify the challenges, but they also point to solutions that can help create more effective compliance and ethics programs. Use this link for more information: <http://www.corporatecompliance.org/>.

About the SCCE

The Society of Corporate Compliance & Ethics (SCCE), established in 2004, is headquartered in Minneapolis, MN. SCCE is a non-profit professional member association that serves more than 5,500 compliance and ethics professionals globally. The association provides resources and training to compliance professionals and champions ethical practices and compliance standards. Visit the SCCE website at www.corporatecompliance.org.